Born Renny Auta Barry in Jos, Squiz thaTrigg started his early life in Jos - the legendary capital of Plateau state the home of Great minds like M.I. Abaga, Jesse Jagz and lot more of other renown artists.

Renny later attended corona primary school, Federal government college Jos and TCNN staff school for high school and University of Jos where he acquired a B.sc in Political Science.

Recorded his first single in 2006 but ventured into music professionally in 2015 when he won the grand prize for a rap battle hosted by Happy day music group HDMG in which the likes of Kevin Pam one time winner of Big brother Africa was among the judges.

So far he has three projects and counting and dropped the official video for the hit single Dat kind thing 2 months ago. He also has his battle platform named Mic Gladiators where he puts on upcoming Emcees.

Squiz da Trigg is an independent artist and one of the most consistent putting in work on this side. No doubt, he is someone to be on the look out for!
